

the outrages against the Jews in Russia.

At the solicitation of prominent Hebrews acting as a committee for the relief of the sufferers, inquiry has been made, and Mr. McCormick advises the department that the government has the situation under control, and that the supplies which are being raised are not needed by the Jews.

Officials at the State Department are disinclined to discuss the matter, and while they deplore the atrocities, do not find any way by which they can make protest without giving offense to Russia and conveying the impression that this Government is meddling in her internal affairs.

A circular has been issued by the Russian ministry forbidding the Jews to maintain arms to protect themselves, which means that they will be defenseless in case another onslaught is made upon them. A large number of suits have been brought against the state for damages. These aggregate more than a million and a half dollars.

POLO TO BE FEATURE OF PRINCETON FINALS

Game Scheduled With the Speedy Team From Devon.

PRINCETON, N. J., May 18.—The commencement program at the university was announced this morning, and follows to a great extent the order of exercises of previous years. Perhaps the most conspicuous feature is the polo game between the newly formed Princeton team and one from Devon.

The commencement proper will be held at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday, June 10. Exercises connected with the occasion will begin on Saturday, June 6, at 10 o'clock, with the junior oratorical contest in Alexander Hall. In the afternoon the Yale-Princeton baseball game will be played, and in the evening the glee club concert will be held. The sermon baccalaureate, Sunday, June 7, will be preached by Dr. Henry Vandike, of Princeton. President Wilson will deliver a short address.

Monday, June 8, will be class day. Opening exercises will be held at 11 a. m. in Alexander Hall, followed immediately by the planting of the class ivy. At 2:30 o'clock the cannon exercises will be held around the old cannon, and in the evening a promenade concert will be given on the front campus.

Tuesday, June 9, will be taken up with musical meetings, exhibitions of drawing and microscopic work. President and Mrs. Wilson will give a reception on this day from 4 to 6 p. m. The sophomore dance will start at 10:30 p. m.

MR. CARLISLE BELIEVES HIS PARTY HAS A CHANCE

Former Secretary of the Treasury John G. Carlisle arrived at the Shoreham Hotel this morning from New York, and spent several hours at the Treasury Department. He will remain in the city until tomorrow.

"I am here on private business," said he, when asked for his views on the political situation, "and am out of politics. I have been too busy to give any attention to it, though from what I have heard I believe the Democratic party has an excellent opportunity to elect a candidate if the leaders go together."

The former Secretary is in excellent health.

BIDS SCHEDULED FOR DISTRICT SUPPLIES

M. C. Hargrove, chairman of the special committee to schedule the bids received by the District government for general supplies for the next fiscal year, made his report to the Commissioners today. There were 103 proposals received. These have been scheduled in each instance, the ties noted, and Mr. Hargrove reports upon 39 proposals in which there was some informality.

The Commissioners have accepted the report, and the schedules have been referred to Property Clerk Beckett and Superintendent of Property Sims, to be passed upon for the award of the several items. In the cases of regularity in the form of the proposals the Commissioners have the right to waive the informality or to reject the bids. This action will be specified in passing upon the final report of Messrs. Beckett and Sims.

THE SYLVESTER RECEPTION.

The reception planned in honor of Major Richard Sylvester, to commemorate the completion of his twentieth year of service in the local Police Department, has been postponed from Wednesday, May 20, to Monday, May 25.

MILITARY SURGEONS DEPART FOR STON

Convention Begins Tomorrow

FOREIGN DELEGATES COMING

Work of Association Officially Approved by Congress—Army, Navy, and Marine Corps Represented.

A number of prominent surgeons in the various branches of the United States military service left Washington today for Boston to attend the twelfth annual meeting of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States.

The convention will begin its sessions tomorrow and continue for three days. Delegates will be present representing the army, navy, marine corps and the National Guards of the various States. Those representing the National Government service are:

Surgeon General Walter Wyman, of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, for the Marine Corps; Medical Director J. C. Wise, of the retiring board, Washington, and Surgeon H. G. Boyer, of the cruiser Prairie, for the navy; Major W. C. Eorden, in charge of the General Hospital at Washington Barracks, and Surgeon George D. DeShon, stationed at Boston, for the army. All medical officers in any of the branches of the service who are now stationed in the vicinity of Boston, have also been directed to attend the sessions.

Recognized by Congress.

The meeting of the association this year is expected to surpass all previous ones, for the special reason that the organization has lately been accorded official recognition by Congress. In December last a bill was passed by Congress giving its indorsement to the association.

The three Cabinet officers presiding over the branches of the service represented in the association—Army, Navy, and Treasury, the latter having the Marine Hospital Service under its charge—were designated as members of an advisory board with the surgeons general of the three branches and the president of the association, ex-officio. This constitutes the advisory board as follows: Secretaries Shaw, Root, and Moody, Surgeons General Rixey, O'Reilly and Wyman, and Gen. Robert A. Blood, of the Massachusetts National Guard.

Foreign Representatives.

Because of this official approval of the association, several foreign governments, including Russia and Germany, have designated distinguished members of their medical service to attend the meeting. This has never been done heretofore.

"Meetings of this sort never attract attention abroad unless they have the stamp of official approval," said an army surgeon today. "The recent action of Congress, therefore, has given more widespread interest than ever before to the deliberations of the association. The reports of the discussions and papers presented at the annual meetings form a valuable addition to medical records."

The officers of the association are: President, Brig. Gen. Robert A. Blood, M. V. M., Charlestown, Mass.; first vice president, Medical Director John C. Wise, U. S. N., Warrenton, Va.; second vice president, Surgeon General Walter Wyman, Washington, D. C.; secretary, Major James Evelyn Pilcher, U. S. V., Carlisle, Pa.; treasurer, Major Herbert A. Arnold, N. G. Pa., Ardmore, Pa.; assistant secretary, Capt. William A. Rolfe, M. V. M., Boston, Mass.

The executive committee consists of the preceding officials and Surgeon General Robert M. O'Reilly, U. S. A.; Col. R. Harvey Reed, N. G. Wyo.; Surgeon John F. Urie, U. S. N.; Lieut. Col. C. F. W. Myers, N. G. N. J.; Major Thomas C. Clark, Minn. N. G.; Past Assistant Surgeon C. P. Wertenbaker, Marine Hospital Service, in conjunction with the ex-presidents, ex-officio, namely: Col. Nicholas Smith, III, N. G.; Brig. Gen. J. D. Griffith, N. G. Mo.; Brig. Gen. A. J. Stone, Minn. N. G.; Brig. Gen. George M. Sternberg, U. S. A.; Col. Charles H. Alden, U. S. A.; Lieut. Col. J. V. R. Hoff, U. S. A.

OPEN GAS JET CAUSED YOUNG FARMER'S DEATH

William Florence Found Lifeless in Mades Hotel Room.

In a gas-filled room at the Mades Hotel, William Florence, a young farmer of Round Hill, Va., was found dead yesterday, having been suffocated by the fumes. His death is believed to have been caused by carelessness in turning out the light. There is no evidence of suicide.

The young man came to Washington Saturday night and registered at the Mades Hotel. Before going to bed he made inquiries concerning the manipulation of the jet, and the contrivance was explained to him by a porter. He then locked the door and nothing was seen of him by the hotel employees until his lifeless body was found in the morning.

Letters in his pockets indicated he had come here to see a girl named Elizabeth, employed at the National Botanic Garden. This clue was investigated by Coroner Nevitt, and a girl named Elizabeth was located there. She refused to give her full name, however, and would make no statement in connection with the case.

The body was identified late yesterday afternoon by George M. Jesse, a friend of the young farmer. The police then communicated with his parents and late last night a brother, John, came to Washington and took charge of the body. This afternoon it was taken to Purcellville, Va.

MAY INVOKE LAW TO CLEAR AWAY BUSHES

Suburbanites of Northwest Propose Action.

HAVE DRAFTED MANIFESTO

Association Will Act June 5 on Drastic Resolutions for Removal of Loafing Trees and Bushes.

At the next meeting of the Northwest Suburban Citizens' Association, to be held the first Friday in June, a resolution will be introduced which will not doubt excite considerable discussion, as it is designed to affect large landed interests in and around the city of Washington.

The resolution has been drafted by Dr. John W. Chappell, secretary of the association, and has been sent to all the members, that they may be prepared to vote upon it formally.

In Vigorous Terms.

The text is in part as follows: "Whereas it is a well-known and notorious fact to the people of the District of Columbia and to a large number of the citizens of the United States, who have visited the National Capital, that the suburbs of the District of Columbia, or lands lying outside of the city limits, are and have been since the creation of the seat of government, covered by a forest of loitering trees, underbrush, and bushes, and that such conditions not only render said lands unsightly, but depreciate their value and are a source of damage and positive injury to the improvement of the suburbs and create a nuisance to owners of adjoining tracts who have been inspired by their own interest and public spirit to remove said conditions and beautify their homes; therefore

"Be It Resolved, By the Citizens' Northwest Suburban Association, that we publicly charge the owners of said neglected and unimproved lands, with the following commission and omission: Four Charges Set Forth.

"First, in permitting their land to remain a forest of thick and unsightly trees.

"Second, in permitting their land to be covered with bushes and underbrush, not only along the avenues, but country roads, to such an extent as to render them unattractive to visitors and prospective purchasers.

"Third, in making themselves as said owners, not only bad neighbors, but as wanting in that progressive and public-spirited character which should exemplify every true American.

"Fourth, we charge them as being destitute of that spirit of enterprise which should animate an intelligent citizen of the District of Columbia.

"We furthermore, solemnly declare that unless these grievances are promptly removed, we will invoke the majesty of the law to remove said nuisances; and if the present law is not adequate to meet the mischief, we will endeavor to secure such legislation as will remove the nuisance complained of."

RAILROADS WIN THE WAR ON SCALPERS

New Orleans Courts Stop Their Dealings in Tickets.

Dispatches were received this morning by local railroad men announcing that Judge Grossman, of the supreme court of Louisiana, sitting at New Orleans, had granted the injunction asked for by the railroads restraining the scalpers of the Crescent City from dealing in the special rate tickets to the Confederate reunion.

The decision is of national importance, as a majority of the railroads and the American Ticket Brokers' Association of America were involved in the contest. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad first took the matter into the civil district court and won. Then the national association of brokers went to the rescue of the New Orleans scalpers, appealing the case to the higher court, which today decided in favor of the railroads.

The decision is to be used as a precedent by the railroads in their fight to compel the authorities of Missouri to prevent the scalpers from dealing in tickets to and from the St. Louis Exposition.

It was said today that unless the Missouri, St. Louis and Exposition authorities take action to prevent ticket scalping the railroads would not grant any special rates to the big fair.

SUPREME COURT DECISION ON LONG AND SHORT HAUL

The Supreme Court today, in the case of the Interstate Commerce Commission versus the Louisville and Nashville Western and Alabama, and Atlanta and West Point Railroad, laid down the principle that railroads have the right in some cases to charge more for a short haul than for a long haul.

FINED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Attorneys J. Athens Johnson and Ellwood A. Wagerburn were each fined $20 for being in contempt of court today, before Justice Hagner. An additional fine of $10 was imposed on Attorney Johnson because he characterized Justice Hagner's court as a "kintergarten."

CLOSING AFFAIRS HERE.

Former Third Vice President Frank S. Ganno, of the Southern Railroad, who has been elected vice president and general manager of the Inter-urban Railroad of New York city, which includes all of the surface lines, the elevated railroads and the new underground system, is in Washington. He is closing up his affairs here and will assume his new duties in New York June 1.

COMPANIES COMPETE FOR FERRY SERVICE

Two Concerns in Rivalry for Connection With Alexandria.

Urged on by a spirit of keen rivalry the Washington Steam Ferry Company and the Washington and Alexandria Steam Ferry Company, now in the course of organization, have begun a contest for first place in the re-establishment of traffic between the two cities. Both concerns will shortly arrange for the construction of new boats, and the race will resolve itself into a test of rapid ship-building.

The destruction of the Columbia, belonging to the former company, last Wednesday night, has seriously hampered ferry service on the Potomac, and at first the opinion was general that many months would elapse before traffic could be reopened. But in view of the competition the delay will not be so great, and the public will receive the benefit of spirited rivalry.

Already the Columbia has been temporarily replaced with another boat. This steamer makes two trips a day, and has thus prevented a complete tie-up of ferry communication. In spite of this, however, an effort will be made to charter a "double ender" for use until the new boats are purchased.

The actual race is scheduled to begin tomorrow, when John B. Padgett, general manager of the Washington Steam Ferry Company, and Bert G. Faulhaber, the treasurer, will go to Baltimore in regard to the buying of new steamers. Negotiations will be opened with the William Woodall Company, shipbuilders, and arrangements may be made at once for the construction of new vessels.

On the other hand the Washington and Alexandria Steam Ferry Company is rapidly assuming shape, and will be launched within a few days. A charter has been granted by the commission at Richmond, Va., and the company will be permanently organized as soon as the printed form is received. Two boats of a modern type will be built, and be put into commission within eight months.

The novel contest has attracted wide attention, and will be closely watched by the business world.

HIGH SCHOOL CADETS TO DRILL FOR TROPHY

Annual Competition to Be Held May 19, 20, and 23.

The annual competitive drill of the Washington High School Cadets will take place at the American League baseball park tomorrow, Wednesday and Saturday. The companies of the first battalion will drill tomorrow, those of the second battalion Wednesday, and the negro cadets will compete Saturday.

A great deal of interest has been manifested in this drill. Although there are always crowds of classmates and friends of the cadets at the drills every year, there are indications that the seating and standing capacities of the ball park will be taxed on the days the first two battalions drill.

Those who should know say there is nothing to the drill but Company B, of Central High School, under command of Captain Seudder, and Company H, of Western, commanded by the popular Captain Stokes. A finer line is drawn by those possessing inside information. They say Western is almost sure to carry off the much-coveted flag for excellent drilling.

Company F, of Eastern, which carried off the honors last year, is said to be entirely out of the running because the drilling is not up to last year's standard. Business has a two-year company, which is not the best in the regiment by any means because the boys pay more attention to their studies than to drilling.

Technical points of competitive drilling, and if the boys of that school have a look at the prize when it is presented to the winning company, that will be the nearest they will ever get to the trophy.

With Eastern and Technical practically out of the running, it naturally lies between Western and Central. Central has two companies, but Company B stands best. The Westerners have high hopes of carrying off the prize, and Captain Stokes is to be commended for having such a well-drilled and capable squad of cadets.

The judges of the drill are Capt. J. S. Herron, Second Cavalry, chairman; Lieut. H. B. Ferguson, Engineer Corps, and Lieut. C. G. Harvey, Second Cavalry.

FOG HID SIGNALS.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 18.—In the dense fog early yesterday morning a Baltimore and Ohio freight train crashed into the rear of a Reading freight on the Jersey Central Railroad, near Bound Brook. Engineer Alfred Billing and Fireman Abram Crighton, of Philadelphia, both on the Baltimore and Ohio train, were injured, Billing seriously. In the dense fog the engineer could not see the block signals soon enough to prevent the collision.

"AMERICAN RULE WORSE THAN SPANISH TYRANNY"

Baptists Excoriate Army in the Bit-terest Terms.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 18.—Resolutions bitterly denouncing the Administration's policy and the conduct of the American troops in the Philippines, were adopted last night by the New England Colonial Baptists' Association, which is holding its annual convention in this city.

The resolutions recite that the "cruelties in the Philippines have put to shame the deeds of mankind, from the attempt of the Persians to conquer Greece to the Indians; that the abuse of women, the putting to death of priests, the burning of villages and towns, the bringing about of conditions that have caused over 100,000 people to be starved to death, and the robbing of churches of images, are the deeds of a Buccaneer, a Pirate and a Butcher Smith."

The resolutions also say that "there have been more cruelties, more lives destroyed, more property wantonly wasted, more immorality and drunkenness in the three years of American occupation than in the 300 years of Spanish tyranny. This lack of regard for human life and liberty is seen in the treatment of the negro. The North has been hypnotized by the South. Our friends, so-called, have joined our bitterest enemies."

VETERAN FIREMEN NOT GOING TO FREDERICK

Unable to Obtain Satisfactory Rates From the Railroads.

At the last meeting of the Veteran Volunteer Firemen's Association it was decided not to attend the Maryland State firemen's convention, to be held in Frederick in June. The representatives of the association have been in consultation with the railroads, and it has been impossible to come to a satisfactory agreement about the rate to Frederick and the firemen decided, therefore, to abandon the trip to the State convention. They are thus prevented from participating in what has always been to them an occasion of much pleasure. Upon their former visits to the State conventions the local company has invariably made a favorable impression.

The Maryland State convention of firemen has always been the chief event in the meetings of the fire departments of the State. This year's convention will prove no exception. The association of Frederick is making arrangements to receive the largest crowd in the history of the city and an elaborate program has been prepared for the entertainment of the visiting organizations.

It is probable a number of local firemen will attend the Frederick convention in their individual capacity.

CUBAN ENGINEER TO AID IN NAVAL STATION SURVEY

The State Department is advised by a cablegram from Minister Squiers in Havana that the Cuban government has appointed an engineer to accompany engineers from the Navy Department to Guantanamo to survey the ground for the establishment of a naval station at that place. Naval officers selected for the work are now en route to Guantanamo and will be joined by the Cuban official.
